POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Authorized by and to be paid for at the rate of 25c per inch by the undersigned committee which has been selected by James A. Fathers.

Platform and Statement

THE FOLLOWING PLATFORM AND STATEMENT of the Recall issue was formally and unanimously adopted by the Good Government Campaign Committee last Saturday night. It already has the open and unqualified approval of hundreds of men in all walks of life, and before the campaign is over and it will be signed by thousands of the citizens of this city.

One year and three months ago the people of this City adopted the Commission Form of Government.

They did this because it promised relief from the intolerable civic and moral conditions then existing in our City. Gambling was open to the boys of our city; houses of prostitution flourished; wine rooms frequented by women were maintained; saloons were kept open day and night and on Sundays; liquor was openly and notoriously sold to minors, both boys and girls; disorderly saloons were located in many places where it had been admitted for years police regulation was altogether impossible; all this and more in open defiance of law and to the full knowledge of the police officers, who with the approval of the then Mayor, failed to arrest offenders for such violations. Mayor Fathers was elected upon the public understanding that conditions must change. He has made that change.

As Mayor, he has enforced the laws and ordinances equally against all for the first time in many years. He has strengthened and enforced the eleven o'clock closing ordinance for saloons. He has enforced the Sunday closing ordinance for saloons; he has closed the wine rooms and kept them closed; he stopped the sale of liquor to minors, both boys and girls; he passed and enforced an ordinance forbidding the sale of liquor to women in saloons; he closed the houses of prostitution and has kept them closed; he has absolutely stopped the practice of permitting minors to gamble in public places; he did his plain legal duty in revoking the licenses of two saloon keepers who had been convicted of selling to minors; he cut down the number of saloons in our city from fifty-three to forty-two; he limited the territory wherein licenses for the sale of liquor would be granted so that saloons would be where they could be regulated to obey the law.

Mayor Fathers has done these things and enforced these laws and ordinances in a broad manner, never posing as a reformer and he will continue to do so fearlessly and impartially so long as he is Mayor.

The matter of reducing the number of saloons in Janesville was the last of the Mayor's affirmative regulations for better conditions. The Mayor's statement in this regard came last November. Immediately all elements of criticism united in protest and clamored for a return of the old conditions. The campaign for the recall of Mayor Fathers had begun.

That these regulations were neither unjust nor injurious to legitimate business is evident from the fact that many men affected thereby willingly accepted and obeyed them. Those who refused willing obedience are now calling for his removal from office. They did not want conditions changed. United with this campaign were, at once, all those who felt that obedience to law was financially hurtful to their business.

We are now engaged in a civic struggle to decide between decency and indecency in our City government, and whether an administration whose fundamental policy is decency in our City government, and whether an administration whose fundamental policy is decency in our civic conditions can long endure in our city. These historical facts create the issues of this campaign.

Mere professions are lies in the face of real facts.

Many were led to indorse and support this recall movement upon the supposition that it was a business movement or a movement in the commercial interest of the community. Facts alone must speak. The facts will be made known.

The man who now champions the recall cause, and is trying to oust Mayor Fathers from office, is he who was Mayor of our City when the Commission Form of Government was adopted. Certain accusations and charges have been made, no proofs have been offered. The indictment has been filed but no evidence has been introduced. The people must render a verdict. They should hear the proofs, and know the facts. Justice and fairness to all demands this. We call upon the man opposed to Mayor Fathers to publicly and openly state to the voters of Janesville where he stands upon the foregoing facts. We invite him to discuss the issues of this campaign at any public meeting held before the election.

The following names constitute the Campaign Committee appointed by Mayor Fathers:

In pursuance with Sections 94-3 and 94-4 of the Revised Statutes of 1911, I hereby nominate the following persons as a campaign committee on disbursements:

LEST WE FORGET.

On Tuesday, July twenty-second, the citizens of Janesville vote on the question of retaining Mayor James A. Fathers in office or electing his successor. It is an election fraught with vital interest to the future of Janesville. Upon its result depends the question of whether this city is to continue to enforce laws and ordinances in the interest of decency or take a step backward to a wide open community where laws are ignored.

It is a vital question to every home in the city. It is not a religious movement; it is not a political movement, but a problem that hits at the very heart of our institutions—the home. The result, as one speaker has said in discussing the subject, is of more importance to Janesville than the question of whether congress passes the tariff measure.

It is a question that is of interest to every mother and father in the whole city. It is a matter that can not be lightly discussed and thrown aside, but one for sober consideration. The recall was brought into life because the present city officials cleaned up the city, closed disreputable dives and enforced the laws and ordinances, in the cause of decency, for the protection of the boys and girls and the protection of the home.

This is an indisputable fact and no matter how the opponents of the present administration may try to evade the real issue it is written so that those who run may read "Law or Lawlessness." With this in mind do the citizens of Janesville, the fathers and mothers, want the city thrown wide open, want the old conditions to return, want women to ply their trade unmolested, liquor shops open all hours of the nights and Sundays, dice games and slot machines permitted, young girls enticed into wine rooms and to their ruin, and their sons made drunkards and gamblers?

The present administration have cleaned up these conditions and made their best efforts to make Janesville a clean city morally. They should be given the endorsement and support of every citizen interested in public welfare. The recall sentiment was created by persons who felt their personal interests were trampled upon by this enforcement of the law and blinding the real issue, they have led many others into believing that their campaign is in the interests of the city, not for their own personal gain and pecuniary benefit.

When the recall lists were passed around and signed, many placed their names upon them, under mistaken impressions. Whether they were told, or it was intimidated by those passing them, that it was to bring factories to Janesville, or whether they signed them through to be dissuaded now, but it is certain that all the men whose names are on the lists published are not in sympathy with the recall movement.

It has been stated that aligned against the present administration are all the retail liquor dealers. This is another erroneous statement that has been given widespread publicity for "political ends." It is safe to say that the majority of the holders of saloon licenses welcome the enforcement of the present laws relative to their business. Could they be polled this fact could be proven. It places their line of occupation upon a plane of a legitimate business, gives them regular hours to work in, their Sundays off and excludes from their places a class of trade that is most undesirable.

But it is to the mothers and fathers that the question should appeal most forcibly. It is to them the matter is of vital interest and the result on Tuesday will depend largely upon their individual efforts. It is a question to be discussed in all its various forms and during the coming week frequent mass meetings are to be held where the issues will be clearly explained so that there can be no mistake nor the voter befuddled by other questions that do not enter into the matter.

If anyone thinks that July is not having its share of thunder storms let them sit up and take notice of the frequent disturbances that have occurred during the past two weeks. It is a wet moon certainly.

By the time the investigation of the baseball "trust" is completed, perhaps St. Louis will learn why it can't get out of the second division.

Whenever anybody buys a $6,000, 6000 parcel of London real estate there seems to be a presumption that the purchasers are Americans.

Obviously the Put-in-Bay lady whose land has been appropriated for $7,000 should have taken the $14,000 when it was offered.

The Milwaukee outfielder who is going to be knocked down to the highest bidder ought to be told about the thirteenth amendment.

Washington doesn't seem to understand how inseparably attached the secretary of state and the chautauques are to each other.

An Illinois democrat has declined a $1,400 postmastership. It is to be feared there is something the matter with his regularity.

They say three state senators in the penitentiary for bribery are about to be paroled. Could anything be more natural?

Despite his predecessor's experience, President Wilson seems to consider the golf vote worth diligent cultivation.

A minister says there will be no baseball in heaven. In that case, the umpire can be talked to in the same old way.

SPUR OF THE MOMENT

According to Uncle Abner, who wears a belt and suspenders at the same time is trying to beat the game by enjoying more than his share of the luxuries.

It takes a great deal of fortitude for a fellow to wear a full beard all summer because he not only makes himself uncomfortable but makes everybody else feel like going and jumping in the creek.

The folks who stick at home on hot Sundays and sit in the shade of the old apple tree have got it all over the folks who go skylarking around on Sunday excursions.

Down in the "dry" belt there is a middle-aged gentleman who had the misfortune, some twenty years ago, to lose one of his legs. A railroad accident. Since that time he has been wearing a wooden leg, known in the vernacular as a "pop." Two or three years ago he decided that the leg should be doing double duty. Working simply as a leg, it was not exhausting its possibilities, by any means. So he followed the leg out and lined it with copper. The leg then held four quarts of whiskey.

Every time the farmer went to some convenient oasis in the desert, he had the leg filled. He had placed a small faucet in the side of the leg and any person wishing a drink of the stuff that made Georgia III. famous could get it by twisting the faucet and paying the usual fee. One night not long ago thieves broke into his house in the night and stole the leg, making a rich haul, as the owner had just had it filled the day before.

The price of stocks on the market is going down but this cannot be said of the price of anything else.

This country seems to be full of life long Democrats who began voting the ticket away back in 1912. If Jim Lewis shaves off his whiskers he will have nothing left but his senatorial courtesy. Every time anybody says young blood is best, old man Weston starts on another 2,000 mile hike. The government believes that the photograph trust needs a time exposure. Texas is being devastated by grasshoppers. Jos Bailey had that job for a long time. The nation is still safe. J. Ham Lewis hasn't shaved them off yet. A Washington correspondent informs us that President Wilson is "bent on the currency question." He is very lucky to be only bent. Most of us are broke on that question.

Hints for Canning Season. Always screw the fruit jar covers on so tight that the old man will have to use an ax, a chisel, a kit of burglar tools and a stick of dynamite to open them next winter. Always peel the pineapples before canning them. Pineapples have a barbed hide and it always scratches a man's throat to swallow them when they are in their virgin state. Large pineapples should be cut up into two or more pieces, as some pineapples are too large for a mouthful.

To strain catsup thoroughly, hang one end of the catsup on a nail several feet from the floor and tie a two-hundred pound weight to the other end of it and let it hang several days. This ought to strain it sufficiently.

Heart to Heart Talks

By JAMES A. EDGERTON

THE NEW AGE.

It is the hour before the dawn. Here and there some singer, a prophet voice, tells of the coming morn. The mass of men do not know, for they yet sleep, but one by one they awaken and, as with an inward eye, see the first signs of the daybreak.

In the long night of history a decade is as an hour, a day as a second. The great clock of time ticks on. The light grows. Now and again some new voice is added as a herald of the sunrise.

The world always has its seers, but does not heed them till the event they foretold is past. Especially is this true in the great epochs, the times before the crises.

The morning star of hope is sliding, and the clouds above it take on a graying tinge. The mountain tops of the future catch the first faint radiance, though the bases are yet in shadow.

A faint hunch, like a psychic wave, stirs through the world of thought. More souls emerge from their slumber and wonder if at last the long looked for day is nigh.

Why paint the sunrise? For that is yet under the veil of the future. And it may come through black clouds and storm. Who knows? It is enough for us to feel that it will come; that sooner or later the new day will flood the world with light.

Mankind is on the eve of a spiritual awakening. Liberty is again to lead the races. The old creeds, dogmas and husks are to be supplanted by the living religion of the Christ. Old errors will pass away, and old truths will be seen in a new light. The century plant of progress, which has grown so wonderfully during the past 100 years, will burst into flower. Human brotherhood will cease to be merely a preacher's phrase and will become a vital fact.

The marvelous material advancement of the world will not end in machines and scientific formulas. It has another and deeper meaning. It will have its counterpart in human development. It will reach its logical result in an intellectual, artistic and spiritual unfoldment such as the world has never seen before. It will bring its blessings, not to the few only, but to all mankind. The age is electric with new thought forces. Over the shoulders of the green old world is rising the dawn of a better day.

There, in the land of the Acadians, on the site of Grand-Pre, whence the Acadians in 1755 were deported by order of the British government, she will devote herself to a study of Acadian customs. The reason for Miss Goodrich's trip north is that she has been chosen to play the title role in Longfellow's "Evangeline," which has been dramatized, and will be Catherine Winters Sought in Gypsy Caravan Between Mineral Point and Janesville.

Hope for the early recovery of Catherine Winters, nine year old daughter of Dr. A. W. Winters of Newcastle, Indiana, who disappeared in a belief to have been kidnapped on March 20, was awakened by a report that a woman had been placed under arrest in Adrian, Mich., who gave the police the latest clue as to her whereabouts. This was dashed by subsequent revelation making it appear that the woman was a victim of blackmailers. Latest reports are to the effect that officers are in search of a gypsy caravan between Mineral Point and this city, from it is believed may have possession of the child. The Knights of Pythias, of whom the father is a member, have taken up the search all over the country and their assistance it is believed will help to locate and recover the missing girl.

[By Associated Press.]
London, July 14.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst and Miss Annie Kenney, militant suffragette leaders, defied the government in court today by appearing at the weekly meeting of the Women's Social and Political Union. Miss Kenney was arrested during the uproar caused by a clash between the police and sympathizers with the suffragettes.

After the meeting Mrs. Pankhurst evaded the officers, but she was arrested later in the day.

FARM HOUSE BURNED
DURING HARD STORM
Residence on Old Jim Bliss Place Two Miles From City Struck by Lightning—Department Called.

Fire caused by lightning early this morning destroyed the dwelling on the farm of Charles W. Butler, better known as the old Jim Bliss place, two miles south of the city on the Han River road, near where it leaves the River road. The loss under a fire insurance is from $3,000 to $3,500. One thousand dollars insurance was carried on the building and a small amount on the furniture.

Because of the fact that the storm had put the telephone service out of commission a neighbor drove to the city in his automobile and summoned the fire department in the hope that they might prove of assistance. The big motor chemical and hose truck and the chief's auto responded and made fast time in spite of mud sand, and hills, but the house had burned to the ground by the time they arrived. With some difficulty a large bucket brigade formed by neighbors succeeded in preventing the fire from spreading to the other farm buildings. A large tank of water was hauled from the city and great help was done by lightning last night. Eight call boxes were burned out, as were the tower and the fire alarm system. From $200 to $300 damage to the fire alarm telegraph system was done by lightning last night. Eight call boxes were burned out, as were the tower and the fire alarm system.

Buell of the Ward and Wicketon company of Dixon City, Alfred Leonard of the Gould Construction company of Oakton, and a representative of the J. W. Turner Improvement company of the same city are in the city figuring estimates for their respective companies who are expected to be among the bidders.

Money for the construction of the Spring Brook bridge was appropriated by the old common council.

He'd kick the cat; he'd call the cop
To pinch the little boys.
The pests! the brats! I'll put a stop
To all that devilish noise!
He always panned his wife's new hat.

He always knocked the grub.
He'd kick at this, he'd scowl at that.
A crabby, grouchy dub.
The gods observed his yelps and sneers.
And lacked a decade to his years.
Just be a grouch, a whiner, frotter.
For growing old there's nothing better!

His Rise Meteoric.
Bill Benyon, the new bantam champ of England, who is coming across this fall to try his luck with Johnny Coulan, Kid Williams and a few others, jumped into public notice in England in a manner that could sound well in a story book. Digger Stanley, the erstwhile title holder, was booked to meet Eddie Morgan, his one rival, for twenty rounds and the championship of England. Morgan was taken sick and couldn't appear and Benyon, who was a most obscure unknown, pleaded earnestly with the promoters to let him go on in Morgan's place. He'd do it just for experience, for nothing at all, he said. So he was taken on, and of course you know the rest. After twenty rounds of the fast and furious, Benyon was the new champ. Benyon is said to be a perfect ring man, a clean hitter, a flash on his feet and cool and cautious in the tight places. Americanus will be eager to see him perform.

Modest Huggins Has Brains.
Who is the brainiest ball player, the quickest thinker in the game, was asked Miller Huggins, the St. Louis Cardinal manager. Why, I am, of course," says the rabbit, surprised that anyone should have to ask such a question. And then he goes on to tell about himself by way of proving it. "Think of this," says Huggins. "In a game with the Pirates not long ago, men were on second and first and I was at bat. The player on second was a slow runner and I had been planning to bunt along the third base line. As soon as the pitcher threw the ball he started for the third base line and I knew he hoped to get the ball and throw the runner out at third. Then it was that I did a bit of fast thinking. I shifted my position at bat just in time to hit toward the pitcher's box and as the pitcher started toward third the ball went safe for a bingle and both runners scored." Which seems to prove that in the matter of thinking quick as a flash few of 'em have it on Huggins.

SEVENTH STRAIGHT WON BY CARDINALS OVER OREGON NINE

Spectacular Game is Easily Won by Cardinals With Crandall Pitching—Score Fifteen to Three.

Crandall pitched the Janesville Cardinals to their seventh straight win yesterday afternoon at the Driving Park and placed himself in the position as being one of the greatest pitchers in this section of the state. His pitching exhibition was poorer than has been exhibited before, but he has given great support, not an error being chalked up for the Cardinals. The score was fifteen to three, which looks as if the locals gave the Oregon nine a terrible beating. Such is not the case, for had the Oregon nine made as many errors as the Cardinals, a closer game might have been the result.

The local lineup was again shifted yesterday, and the team worked the best that they have worked this year. They had confidence, perhaps because they could depend on Crandall; but nevertheless something lucky was with them, for they hit the ball almost at will, and registered thirteen clean hits, one being for an extra base. Crandall held the opposing batters to six singles, and struck out ten men, in eight innings.

If the clever jokes which were sprung yesterday by the Cards, had not prevailed, the game could have been interesting to witness. In the ninth inning, after the game was won easily by the Cards, Buck Berger Sullivan and Stewart were removed from the game, so that the three men who were on the bench could take a turn in slugging the pit. George Berger first up, flied to the right garden. Porter came to bat with a limp, and secured a clean single, which was followed by another single from Grubby Conlin's bat. The crowd cheered as Crandall secured the hit. A sacrifice or hits in this inning proved fatal again, and four runs crossed the plate before the inning died out.

In the ninth inning, George Crandall was relieved by George Berger, who wanted to make something of himself. He actually accomplished great things, for he fanned the only three men who faced him in this inning, closing the game amid great laughter from the crowd.

Oregon opened the game by getting to Crandall for two clean hits, after one man had walked. They were able to cross but one tally across the plate, closing their half. Janesville got to Cusick, the opposing twirler, for three singles in the first scoring three runs. The game looked like a slugfest at first.

No scoring prevailed in the second. Oregon tied up the score in the third and then the Cards went after the ball as they never did before. Five hits, one for two bases sent in five runs, and clinched the game. Following this inning, Oregon failed to hit Crandall for three innings. He was pitching good ball all the while, but his duo effort seemed to be lacking some of the time.

The lineup for the contest was as follows:
Janesville—Berger and Crandall, 1; Sullivan and Hill, cf; Stewart and Porter, 2b; Hill and Cronin, ss; Butters, 3b; Connell, rf; Nehr, 1b; Wilson, c; Crandall and George Berger, pitchers.

Oregon—Dunn, 1; Gallagher, 2b; R. Ryan, 1b; Elliott, cf; Anderson, rf; Munch, cf; Shotts, 3b; Cusick, p; L. Kivlin, c.

Score by innings—
Janesville 3 0 5 1 0 0 2 4 3—15 13 0
Oregon 1 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0—3 13 0

Summary—Two base hits Butters. Hits off Crandall 6 in eight innings. Bases on balls, off Crandall 4, off Cusick, 1. Struck out, by Crandall 10; by Berger 3; by Cusick 4. Stolen bases, L. Kivlin and Anderson. Wild pitches, Cusick, 2. Sacrifice hits, Dunn, Gallagher. Time of game, one hour and thirty-five minutes. Umpire, Reno Koch, Janesville.

Notes of the Game.
The game was witnessed by about three hundred, which is about the best crowd of the season.

In the first half of the fourth, Crandall was forced to pitch but four balls in order to retire the Oregon batsmen. Nehr caught the first one on a fly, Wilson captured a foul, and Nehr made the third out on R. Kivlin's grounder to Hill.

Stewart, the fast second baseman, and runner, got to third on a single yesterday, through ill-luck on the part of the Oregon infield. He hit for a single, and on attempting to steal, the catcher threw wild, letting him go on to third. Three errors, the Cardinals made in this inning.

Hill was not lucky with the stick. He hit once and fouled many times, but was unable to connect for one of his long drives.

Butters drove a stinger in the third, which went for two bases.

Oregon came down with great expectations. They have defeated the semi-pro aggregation from Madison twice, known as the Cantwells, and also they have slugged out a victory from the Madison Kippys, which the Cards defeated two weeks ago. This is their first defeat of the season, and they were very much downhearted last evening.

White Sox Win.
Although the hunting season is closed the Janesville White Sox showed that they had enough baseball caliber to take the measure of the Janesville Moose Sunday morning at the driving park by scoring 14 to 6. Dropped flies, overthrows, bonehead plays, passed balls and everything that goes to make up an error in the baseball dictionary marred the con-four innings he pitched such masterly ball that he had the Eagles soaring in the air and held them with one hit Star fielding, by McGinley started off defeat for the locals until the ninth when errors, basehits and poor playing cost the Janesville team the game. The Fourth Ward Stars are to play Edgerton here next Sunday.

Fourth Ward Stars: Spohn, c; Hovland, p; McGinley, 1b; Marshall, 2b; Slawson, 3b; Roberts, Vinay and Kaknske, fielders.

TO RESUME PLAY FOR HARRIS TROPHY CUP

Mississippi Players Will Battle in Second Elimination Contest Tuesday on Local Links—Eight Are Already Eliminated.

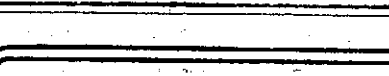

Tomorrow, play will be resumed at the Mississippi Links in the play-off for the beautiful Harris trophy which will be awarded to the champion golfer after the finals are played off. Throughout the tourney there has been considerable interest shown, by the sport playing which has been exhibited by the local men in the first play-off. Eight matches were due to take place before tomorrow, in the first play-off, but today showed that there were still three matches which had not taken place. One of these matches is scheduled to take place this afternoon, so that the winner

Stars Defeated.
Yesterday's contest at the Collie Hill diamond at Beloit gave the Collie Hill Eagles, of Beloit, a chance to gain revenge for the trimming that the Janesville Fourth Ward Stars gave them at this city some time ago, and the Beloit team made the most of it and came out of the game with the long end of the score after a hard fought contest. Final score 5 to 4.

The Stars gained an early lead over the Line City boys and maintained it up until the ninth inning when a rally aided by poor umpiring gave the Eagles the game. Hovland pitched his first game for the locals and for Political Announcement. Published in behalf of John C. Nichols. Written and publication authorized by the Nichols Campaign Committee and to be paid for by their Treasurer at the rate of 25c per inch.

To the People of the City of Janesville

We the undersigned, members of the campaign committee selected to conduct the campaign of John C. Nichols for the office of mayor of Janesville, desire to state our position to the public as follows:

We have the greatest confidence in Mr. Nichols' ability to manage the complex affairs of a municipality along lines best suited to the well being of our city and in keeping with the spirit of modern ideas of progressiveness.

We have accepted this responsibility with the fullest assurance from Mr. Nichols of his sincerity in his desire to co-operate with the people to wrest the control of the government of the city from the grasp of the men who now have possession of it.

There are elements in this city who through subtle means have lashed the administration to the mast head of the corporations and bent its official acts in the direction of their private interests.

If elected the undoing of this will be the first aim of Mr. Nichols and the government of the city restored back to the people.

It is no light task assumed by Mr. Nichols when consenting to become a candidate as the requirements demanded by an intelligent citizenship from their public officials must measure up to the actual conditions existing today and not based upon any ideas of the past. With the active assistance and hearty co-operation of the people we don't hesitate to assure the public that he will fulfill the highest hopes and aspirations of an awakened community.

In the meantime we beg to assure the public that this committee does not stand for either a wide open town, nor for any gambling or immorality, all statements to the contrary notwithstanding. Though the opposition has appropriated to itself all the virtues in sight, we still have some left over from our past life and with the few crumbs left behind by those gentlemen, we hope to worry along somehow.

Pending a thorough organization now before us, we ask that judgement be suspended until we have our statement completed which then will be duly laid before the people of Janesville.

Respectfully Submitted,

H. MAXFIELD, Chairman

Three Years' Wonderful Success of Chiropractic in Janesville:

Thousands of Miserable People Have Been Made Healthful and Happy. Read the Rest of This Advertisement. Learn How You May Be Made Well.

FOR ages the human race has been trying to regain its health. It has tried everything imaginable from the beating of a tom-tom by the Indian medicine man and the unthinkable decoctions of the witches, to the more refined and deadly poisons of our modern "medicine men." We have allowed ourselves to be stuffed with drugs and mutilated with knives, and what is the result? We have only to think of the millions of chronic invalids around us, and the question is answered.

SCIENCE has found that by placing the spinal column in proper alignment, ninety-five per cent of all diseases can be relieved. That is Chiropractic. Adjusting the spinal column and placing it in proper alignment is called Chiropractor Adjustment.

For three years now I have been in Janesville and during that time have given 16,892 Chiropractic adjustments, benefiting thousands of weary, worn out, "tired of life" sufferers.

With the exception of three months time given over the Post Graduate work in Chiropractic I have been right here in Janesville. My experience covers a wide field and should carry a good deal of influence with you, who are sick, in determining where you should go when you want relief from your pain or sickness.

The number of lady patients who come to me for adjustments has grown to such an extent that I now have an able Lady Assistant who particularly looks after the ladies.

Chiropractic is among the recognized sciences and is given full credit for what it will do. Read this excerpt from "Where Nature Bungles," a scientific article in one of the leading magazines by Edwin M. Bowers, M. D., who says:

"Physicians and surgeons all over the world are realizing the importance of the normal alignment of spinal vertebrae and that the relief of 'pinched' nerves, due to 'tipping' of the spinous processes, is frequently followed by remarkable results."

Do you want proof of what I have done in Janesville? Here's lots of it. There's lots more of it on file in my office. Read these testimonials from thankful people. They tell better than anything else what I have accomplished with suffering humanity in three years.

STOMACH TROUBLE.

Illustration No. 11. A well known man suffered with dyspepsia and indigestion for many years. I adjusted the vertebra of the spine at the 5th, 6th and 7th dorsal vertebra, restoring the nervous energy to the stomach, and he can now eat any kind of food without trouble.

Illustration No. 2 shows the first cervical vertebra of the neck out of place. This will cause Neuralgia in the head. A woman who had suffered for many years was in this condition. She came to me and I found that the subluxation was pinching the nerves and cutting off the nervous impulses, which are life itself. Several adjustments got it back in place and the lady has never been troubled with Neuralgia since.

SPINAL COLUMN SPLIT IN TWO, SHOWING NORMAL AND ABNORMAL NERVES

Arrow No. 1 on the left side points to a normal nerve. This nerve will transmit all the nerve force from the brain to the organs it leads to, that is necessary to keep those organs in perfect health.

Arrow No. 2, on left side, points to the spinal cord from which the small nerves (spinal nerves) branch.

Notice arrow number 3 at the lower left side pointing to the great sciatic nerve, a perfect nerve leading down the leg. With a nerve like this you could not have sciatic rheumatism or any other disease.

Arrow number 4 on lower right side, points to the sciatic nerve. This nerve is pinched by subluxated vertebra. Notice how small and shriveled it is. In this case you would be subjected to any disease such as sciatic rheumatism, acute or chronic, cramps, coxalgia, hip joint disease, housemaid's knee, stiffness of the leg, swelling of the foot, varicose veins (or milk legs) and consumption of the bone.

Notice the next three arrows, Nos. 5, 6 and 7, from the bottom upward on the right pointing to the 2nd, 3rd and 4th lumbar nerve, all wasted away. Here's where lumbago, abdominal pains, hemorrhage of the bowels, piles, peritonitis, constipation, consumption of the bowels, and cramps of the bowels, etc. will be found.

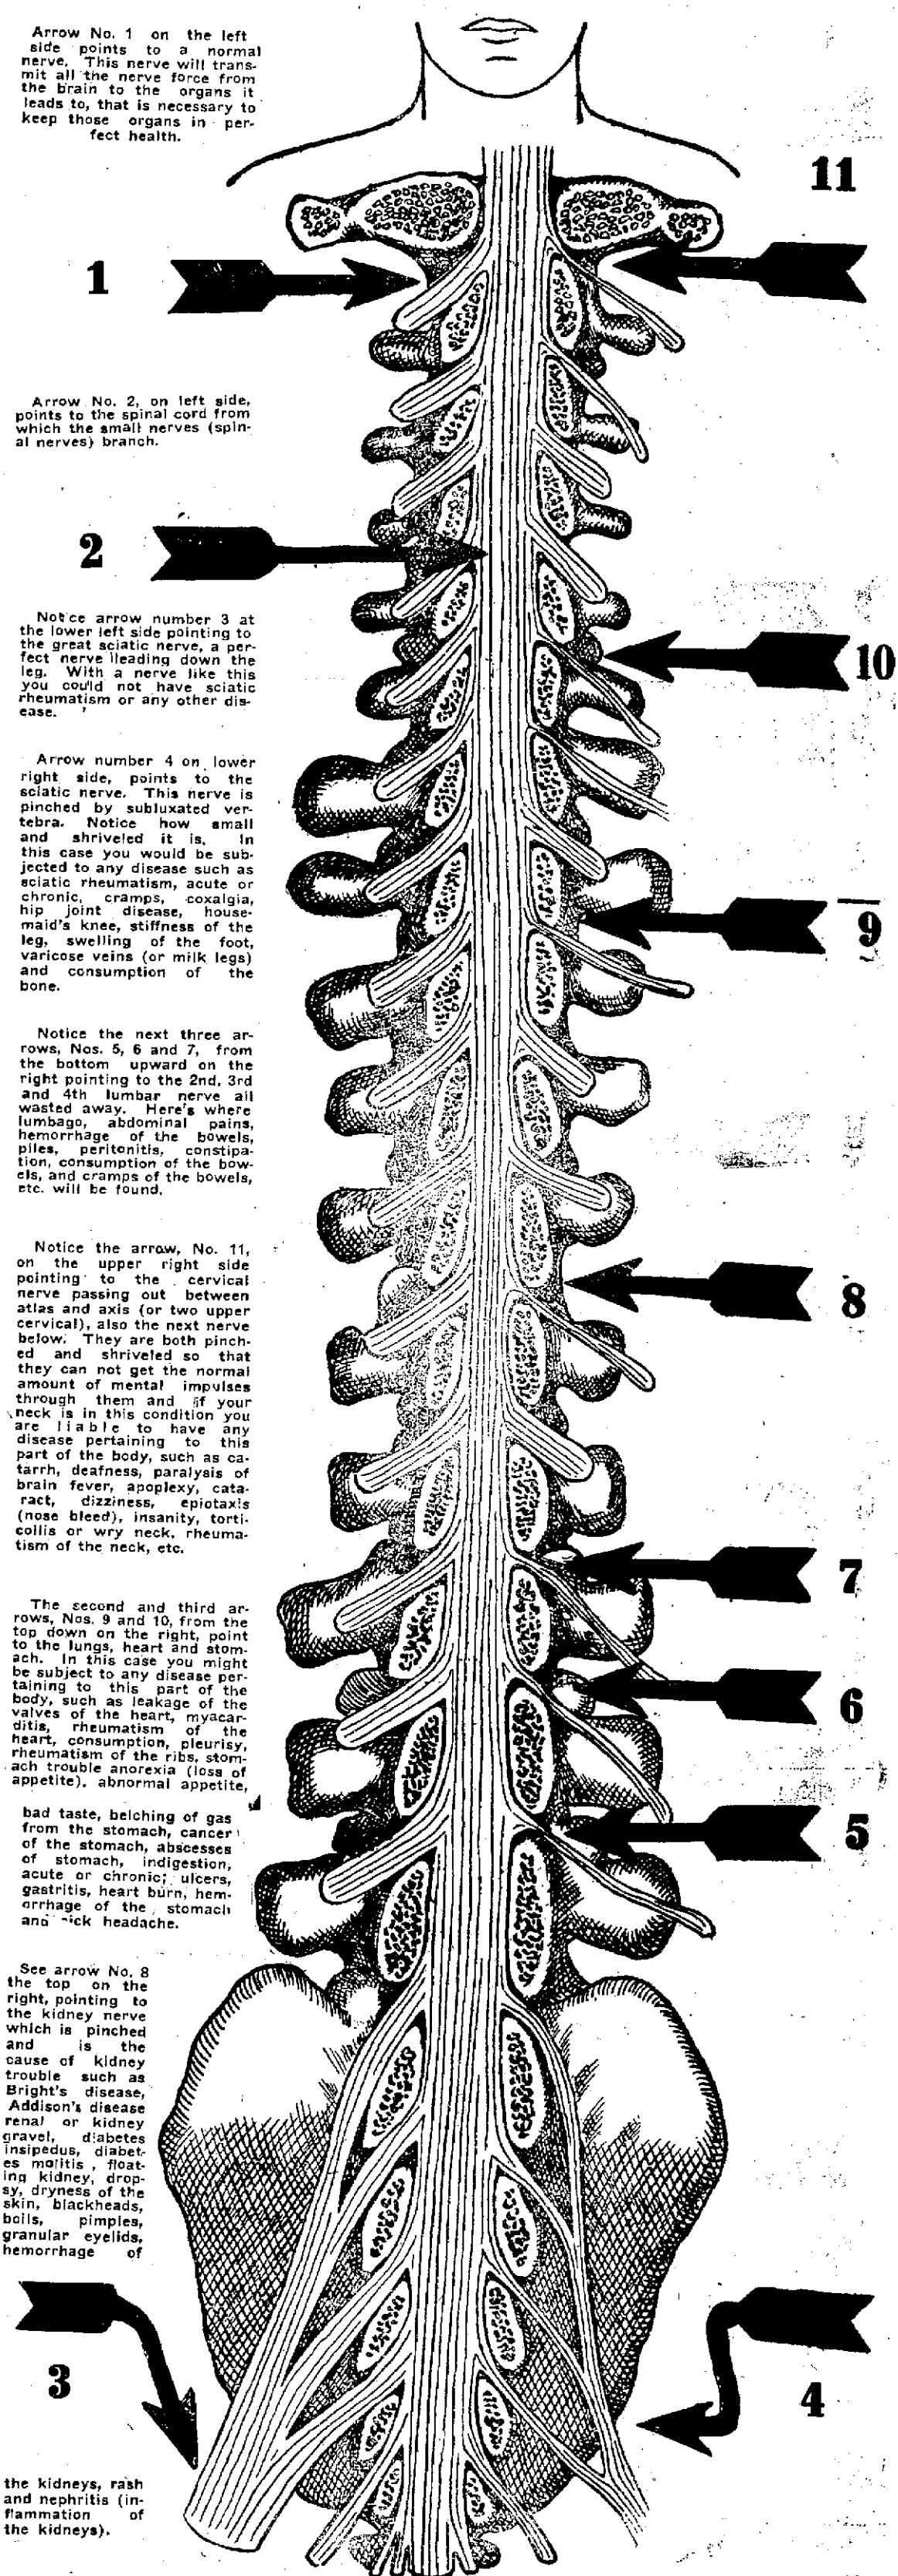

Notice the arrow, No. 11, on the upper right side pointing to the cervical nerve passing out between atlas and axis (or two upper cervical), also the next nerve below. They are both pinched and shriveled so that they can not get the normal amount of mental impulses through them and if your neck is in this condition you are liable to have any disease pertaining to this part of the body, such as catarrh, deafness, paralysis of brain fever, apoplexy, catarract, dizziness, epistaxis (nose bleed), insanity, torticollis or wry neck, rheumatism of the neck, etc.

The second and third arrows, Nos. 9 and 10, from the top down on the right, point to the lungs, heart and stomach. In this case you might be subject to any disease pertaining to this part of the body, such as leakage of the valves of the heart, myocarditis, rheumatism of the heart, consumption, pleurisy, rheumatism of the ribs, stomach trouble anorexia (loss of appetite), abnormal appetite, bad taste, belching of gas from the stomach, cancer of the stomach, abscesses of stomach, indigestion, acute or chronic, ulcers, gastritis, heart burn, hemorrhage of the stomach and sick headache.

See arrow No. 8 the top on the right, pointing to the kidney nerve which is pinched and is the cause of kidney trouble such as Bright's disease, Addison's disease renal or kidney gravel, diabetes insipidus, diabetes mellitus, floating kidney, dropsy, dryness of the skin, blackheads, boils, pimples, granular eyelids, hemorrhage of the kidneys, rash and nephritis (inflammation of the kidneys).

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

PUT YOURSELF IN HER PLACE.

"I THINK it's perfectly outrageous the way maids refuse to come where there are children in the home," I heard an indignant young matron declare the other day. "Here I've been trying to get a maid for two weeks and the impudent things refuse to come simply because I have two children. I wonder if they think people shouldn't be allowed to have children." This outburst was received with appreciation by three other young women who all began to vigorously compete for the floor in order to tell the troubles they, or their friends' friends' friends had had with equally impudent maids who dared to object to working where there were small children.

Did you ever attend a similar indignation meeting? If you are a woman I've no doubt you have, for they are being held all over this country, and the almost entire unanimity with which the offending maids are condemned makes me blush for the lack of sense of justice in my sex. We all know how much harder children make the work in any house; how they upset the routine, get things in disorder, create confusion and, as the New England housewife would put it, track in the dirt. Even when they are our own children and we love them with all our hearts, we sometimes get out of patience. What wonder, then, that they often prove an unendurable trial to the outsider to whom they are excused by no tie of affection, and whom they frequently treat with an entire lack of courtesy and consideration.

Would you think it outrageous, madam, if your husband with plenty of opportunities open to him, chose that position in which he would be least hampered in doing his work?

And that is all your maid is doing. Again, I have frequently heard women complain most bitterly because houseworkers are demanding such high wages. "It's ridiculous," says one. "I wouldn't pay that money even if I could afford it," says another. "They are extortioners," says a third. "I think the government ought to do something about it."

Tell me, madam, if your husband were fortunate enough to be engaged in some kind of work in which the demand for workers was much larger than the supply, would he charge as much as he could get for his services, or not? To get as pleasant and easy a position as possible and get as much money for one's services as possible is the average worker's ambition everywhere in the world.

Why, then, should you blame this particular class for holding this ambition? If you, yourself, love housework so passionately that you think you would be willing to do it in a stranger's home, work under difficult conditions, and accept a much smaller wage than you had the power to command, you have reason to condemn these people; otherwise not.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

BY MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson—I am 15 years old. (1) Am I too young to be friends with boys? (2) My sister is seventeen years old, is she too young to have a boyfriend, as my mother consents to her having one? (3) My girl friend is thirteen years old, is she too young for me to go around with? (4) My parents want me to go back to school next year, I don't want to go home and my girl friends are going back. Do you think I ought to go back? (5) Tell me a good remedy for pimples. (6) Is my writing good.

DARK EYES.

(1) No. But I mean FRIENDS, not kissing and hugging matches. (2) If your parents agree to it and know he is a good man, it is probably all right. (3) She may not be. (4) Your parents are right. You can't amount to much without at least a common school education. (5) Cleanliness. Bathe every day and don't be afraid to use plenty of soap. Eat plenty of fruits and vegetables and nonirritating food. Drink plenty of pure water and bulk. Keep your bowels moving regularly. Exercise outdoors as much as possible and keep away from stuffy rooms and bad atmosphere. (6) I must say there is room for lots of improvement, my dear. Your writing is proof positive that you should follow your parents' wish to return to school.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—I have a silk dress and I have chocolate stains on it. Would you please tell me what I could do with them? (2) Could you press a silk of any kind with a mangle? (3) Do you think it is right for a married lady to go to the theatre every week? M. M. K. (1) Cold water and a good white soap ought to take out the stains. Use a soft clean cloth, rub gently toward the center of the stain so the cleaning will not have a ring around the outer edge. (2) Press silk with a warm iron (not hot) on the wrong side, without a damp cloth. (3) Why not, if she can afford it and if she does not neglect her family to do so.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—(1) Please tell how to make bran bath bags. (2) What will boracic acid water do to a complexion? READER.

(1) Make cheesecloth bags of the size desired, fill them a little and sew together the open end. You can let them lay in the bath water, or use them in place of a wash cloth. The bran must be renewed each time. (2) Boracic acid may whiten but it will harden the skin and in time it will make wrinkles. It is generally used where there is a little soreness from chafing, a cut, etc. *** Dear Mrs. Thompson—(1) I am a girl of nineteen and have been keeping company with a young man six months. He is about 2 inches taller than I. He dearly loves me and he wants me to marry him, but he thinks he doesn't make enough to support us two. He makes $12 a week. He is 21. (2) Do you think we are too young to marry? I am willing to take your advice. (3) What kind of dress would be suitable to marry in? LOVER.

(1) With good management I think you two could get along on $12 a week. Of course you will both have to deny yourself many things, but if you really love each other you will be willing to live very economically for a while. He will probably work up to more money in a year or two. (2) If you understand what marriage means and are healthy so you will not be a burden on a man and can do your share of work, you are not too young. (3) Any simple white dress.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

CONDUCTED BY MRS. ALICE OTCHELL KIM.

In an attractive form that will not suggest their first appearance. Tomatoes, strained, flavored and thickened with gelatin, make a good salad material alone, but better if combined with meat or fish. One way is to let the jelly harden in cups; then dig out the center, leaving a half-inch lining around the cup. In this space pack your lamb cut in dice and mixed with green peas. Soften the jelly which was removed from the molds and pour back slowly to fill the spaces between the bits of meat.

It is like the manner any surplus fruit juice may be stiffened with gelatin and combined with bits of fruit, raw or cooked. Coffee jelly is such a convenient way of disposing of leftover coffee that is likely to be overworked. Sometimes the coffee may be thickened with cornstarch or tapioca and whipped cream be served with it. Left-over cocoa likewise may become the basis of chocolate pudding, which will always please if carefully made.

It has been well said that the greatest difference between the food of the rich and the food of the poor is in the cooking. There is much truth in this, for to a very large extent we live on the same foods.

There are two points, however, which are so valuable in cooking that everyone should understand them; and particularly when preparing food for growing children. FIRST—The cooking of starchy foods. Raw starch is in little hard grains that are digested very slowly. When placed in hot water these grains swell up into a soft mass and are then easily digested. Omelet or cornmeal that has been cooked for only a short time is very difficult to digest, but if these foods are placed in a double boiler and cooked several hours they are very digestible. Thoroughly baked whole wheat bread is without doubt one of the very best building foods for children and every normal healthy child can digest it. But half-baked bread, with the starch grains in it almost as hard as little bits of wood is ruinous to the digestion of either young or old. This is also true in cooking the starchy vegetables.

SECOND—The use of the fats in cooking foods for children. Fat is a most valuable heating and strengthening food, but, like every other food, it may injure the body if taken in the wrong way or in too large amounts. Children need only about one-half an ounce of butter at each meal. When fat has been made very hot, as often happens when foods are fried, acids that injure the stomach are formed in it. Also when foods are coated with fat the digestive juices cannot get at them readily and they are digested very slowly or not at all. For this reason fried foods have no place on the dietary of children; neither do they need as much fat as older people. Fried potatoes, pancakes, crullers and fritters have no place in our children's menus.

The KITCHEN CABINET

ALL hail to good health! You find many by using a vegetable diet have lived a long life, with nerves steady and quiet; Then listen to wisdom, ye people, and try it.

HELPFUL HINTS.

Keep candles for use for an evening on ice for a day or two, and they will burn clearer and longer.

Wash the brush of the carpet sweeper and sun and air it. Just before using, moisten it well.

Burns from acid should have ammonia applied at once; or, if that is not at hand, soda and water will do.

Put rice into plenty of boiling water to start with, and remember that a damp, rainy day will cause a rapid evaporation of the water.

Pine apple juice is a good, pleasant cure for indigestion. A piece of the fresh fruit, if carefully masticated, is also good.

Grated horseradish mixed with lemon juice, a bit of sugar and salt makes a most appetizing sauce to serve with fish or boiled steak.

An old stocking leg slipped on over a whisk broom makes a fine brush to wipe off the kitchen range.

Soiled feathers may be given an alcohol bath, then shaken until dry, and they will be quite fresh.

Ugly cracks and splits in furniture may be filled with beeswax so that they will hardly show.

Save the old wash boiler for a garbage burner, using the back yard for the scene of action.

Put a little salt around the wick of a candle under the flame; it will burn all night, giving a soft, steady flame.

A filling for cake that is not common is this: A can of shredded pineapple, an orange and three bananas sliced thin.

Swiss chard is one of the vegetables that should always be found in every garden. When very young it may be used as salad with French dressing, and later as greens.

Obstinate coffee stains may be removed with cold water and the yolk of an egg.

When baking a cake, set the alarm clock so that you will be sure to look at it.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE A MISTAKE, SHE SAYS

Lucy Price.

Miss Lucy Price has come to be one of the country's principal opponents of woman suffrage. She first came to notice in Ohio when her clever work in the campaign against votes for women had much to do with the proposal's defeat at the polls. Then anti-suffrage leaders imported her to Washington, to Connecticut and to New York. She is scheduled now to do campaign work in various states where suffragettes have brought their measure to an issue.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Things Worth Knowing.

If you happen to have any old-fashioned bolster cases they can be used as covers for ironing boards very nicely.

It is a good policy to keep fine sandpaper handy in the kitchen so when stubborn spots won't come off burned scum use the sandpaper on them. When making a flat round collar or one of the sailor variety cut a pattern from tissue paper first and fit it to the neck and shoulders before cutting the material.

The Table.

Ham Salad—Mix equal portions of minced, well-cooked ham and English walnuts or almonds. Serve with mayonnaise on lettuce leaves.

Corn Relish—Chop one head of cabbage, sprinkle with salt and let stand one hour. Boil twelve small ears of corn and cut the corn from the cob. To the corn add four large onions, one large or two small red peppers, and chop all together; add the cabbage and cover with a dressing made of one and one-half quarts vinegar, one tablespoon mustard, two teaspoons salt, one tablespoon celery seed, one cup sugar. Let all come to a boil; then add one tablespoon flour and one small teaspoon turmeric mixed together. Cook a few minutes.

Raspberry Whip—Put three gills of raspberries with two of powdered sugar and the white of one egg into a large bowl and whip until stiff enough to hold in shape. Heap in a dish, set in a cold place and serve with whipped cream or boiled custard and dry sponge cake cut in slices.

Endive Salad—Take some endive and separate like celery stalks; lay in ice water half an hour and wipe dry. Peel some small tomatoes and cut into sections like oranges; put the endive on a cold dish with a little lettuce beneath it and arrange the tomatoes at the side. Cover with French dressing.

Pork Chops and Fried Apples—Season the chops with salt and pepper and a little powdered sage; dip them in bread crumbs and cook until they are done. Place them on a hot platter; pour off a part of the gravy to make a brown gravy. Pare apples and slice them across in circles two-thirds of an inch thick. Remove cores from centers and brown in the fat which remains in the frying pan. Pour brown gravy over the chops and place slices of apples around edges of platter.

Sausage Rolls—Make a rich biscuit dough, roll thin and cut with a large cookie cutter. Have the fried sausage hot; roll one link in each disc of dough, pinch the ends together and bake. Serve on a hot platter with brown gravy around them.

Chili Sauce—Nine large ripe tomatoes, two onions, one green pepper, one-half cup sugar, one cup vinegar, one tablespoon salt, one teaspoon each of allspice, cinnamon, cloves and mustard. Chop onions and green pepper, add tomatoes cut in pieces and boil five minutes. Seal in glass jars with paraffin.

SEVERE INDICTMENT OF RECALL IS MADE

THE REV. DR. BEATON GIVES
STIRRING TALK AT UNION SERVICES.

MAKES ISSUES PLAIN

Declares Law Enforcement is Only
Genuine One—The Rev. Dr.
Laughlin Gives Brief
Address.

“Janesville will make the greatest mistake it has ever made if by its decision at the polls a week from next Tuesday it goes back to the reforms instituted during the past year and restores government to the community an administration that is allied with the most vicious saloons and against the home,” said the Rev. Dr. David Beaton in his sermon on “The Crisis in the Life of Our City,” delivered at the union services of the Congregational, Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist churches held at the Baptist church last evening.

The sermon was heard by an audience that packed the pews to their capacity, and the service was the first of a series of meetings announced for the present week, one of which will be a meeting of the women's clubs of the city to be held at Apollo Theater at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon and will be addressed by Mayor James A. Flanders and other speakers. There will be a meeting of all the men's clubs of the city in the parlors of the Baptist church on Tuesday evening, a union political prayer meeting at the Congregational church on Wednesday night, and a public mass meeting at the Myers Theater Friday evening. Announcement of these were made in the various churches yesterday.

In opening his sermon, the Rev. Dr. Beaton explained that the ministers of Janesville were taking an active part in the present city campaign at the invitation of the committee representing Mayor Flanders and the present administration. He referred to the meeting of the ministers that was held last Friday evening. Both Protestant and Catholic clergymen were present and there was no dissent in the manner or in the matter of their action. They were in entire unanimity in their support of the side of law and order and promised to do all in their power to insure the retention of Mayor Flanders in office.

“No intelligent person could fail to notice,” declared the speaker, “that such unanimity was extraordinary; it would not have been possible on any other subject. Why was there this unanimity of opinion? It was because the issue was clearly that of morality against immorality; of law against lawlessness; of the home against the saloon; of personal purity against the shameless life. It was because they not only recognized that in the long run that the prosperous community is the one that is governed by law and order and prosperity of the business interests of the city are at stake in the present campaign.”

“I have heard the remark made by a woman, ‘half in jest and half in seriousness,’ if the other party elects its Mayor we will go and live in Alton.’ When it comes to the welfare of home, the mother, and the children, there is no doubt but what it would be advisable for a family to leave rather than reside in a city where they are exposed to all the evils of life. Beaton gave some time to the discussion of two documents that had been submitted to the pastors of the churches; one drafted by the committee representing Mayor Flanders and the other written by James A. Smith, secretary of the personal campaign committee of John C. Nichols. The former, which was read in full, he characterized as a statesmanlike document, a simple and sane statement of what had been accomplished by the present city administration, hiding nothing, and substantiating of what has happened.

“The other,” he said, “was evidently not intended for public consumption. The writer appears to have the popular impression that ministers are dull-witted and easy marks. There is not a shadow of more than one statement of fact; all the rest is mere insinuation. It is vague, indefinite, and were the two communications printed in the deadly parallel columns the weakness of the claims of the recall supporters would be plainly apparent.

Reference was made by the speaker to hearing Ex-Mayor John C. Nichols relate to a committee of the legislature what he had done when in office.

“What he had done amounted to nothing because the community had just been brought face to face with a heinous crime for which two young boys paid the penalty and the city had to assume the cost of it.”

“We must bear in mind that the recall election is a financial burden upon the community for which no occasion exists and in the second place that the recall is an indictment against the men in office in violation of the fundamental principle of law that no person shall be brought to trial unless the charges against him have been clearly and explicitly set forth.”

“The questions is, as no reasons have been given for the recall, what are the issues before us. Let me mention one or two things to clear the way.”

“Many people will have personal objections against the present city administration, or especially Mayor Flanders. They have not done this or the other thing that should have been done. I am not defending the Council as angels or perfect examples of municipal administration. This is not the time to debate the character of street improvements. What we should bear in mind is that when the present administration proposed to enforce the laws and ordinances in obedience to the expressed wishes of the people, immediately the party in opposition demanded a recall. They should bear in mind that when the laws enacted to regulate them should be enforced. That the regulations enforced by the present city administration are not too drastic from a tolerant and liberal point of view is shown by the fact that a number of the saloons accepted them without protest, acknowledging that they could exist and do a satisfactory business without violating the law. I almost wish that one of these men were here to give us his candid opinion.

Personalities have no place in this

In your hand you hold a five-cent piece.
Right at the grocer's hand is a moisture-proof package of Uneeda Biscuit. He hands you the package—you hand him the coin. A trifling transaction?

No! A remarkable one—for you have spent the smallest sum that will buy a package of good food; and the grocer has sold you the most nutritious food made from flour—as clean and crisp and delicious as it was when it came from the oven.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

campaign. It is not a question of the political success of this or the other candidate that concerns us but whether the city administration that has stood for law and order and decency should be retained in office or be displaced by another which is hostile to them.

Is there any man who respects the good name of his city, any father or mother, teacher or pastor, any business man that can afford to take a neutral stand on this question? What happens here Tuesday, July 22, will affect each of us one hundred times as much as the revision of the tariff or any other action taken in Congress. The newspaper or the pulpit that dares not and will not speak out on the issues before us deserves to be branded. No interest is to be neutral. I am confident that if we can get every voter in the city to come to the polls on July 22 we can trust to the judgment of the people.”

The Rev. Beaton closed his sermon with an exhortation to his hearers to use their influence in bringing out every possible voter.

Remarks of Dr. Laughlin.

“The present administration is not as good as it might be,” said the Rev. Dr. Laughlin, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who followed Dr. Beaton's sermon with a few remarks. They have not done all the things that they might and should have done, but the city is very much better than it would be under the control of those of the recall persuasion. I am confident that conditions will continue to improve if the present administration is kept in power and decisively shown that their previous efforts for the betterment of the city have the endorsement of the public. I would dislike to see a backstep taken that would endanger the morals of our children and lay more snares and pitfalls for their feet; because if we do not want our city to be plunged into disgrace.

“There must be no stay-at-home voters on election day; if every friend of good government does not turn out our cause is lost, and the stay-at-homes must be prepared to shoulder the responsibility of its defeat. The opposition will not commit itself to the return of all the evils from which we are free but it will begin to drift; saloons will begin to permit minors to enter and drink houses of infamy will open and resume their business until the conditions will become worse than ever.”

PUBLIC NOTICE.

Persons Answering Fraudulent Advertisements Asked to Notify Gazette.

The Gazette is desirous of keeping out of its columns, fraudulent advertising and asks the assistance of its patrons to that end.

There are any number of concerns in the country who make a living through a nicely worded advertisement, offering golden opportunities, and these unscrupulous people find fertile ground for work among the masses.

Many orders are received in the Gazette mail for advertising which are returned as objectionable and where there is a question as to the qualifications the advertisement is omitted. All newspapers have this experience.

But even with the utmost care there will be an occasional advertisement which will pass the scrutiny of the business department of the paper, and find its way into the columns.

The Gazette will deem it a favor if you will report to the office any trouble which may have been experienced through the answering of such an advertisement.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, July 14, 1873.—Bountiful Crops: There is but one opinion regarding the crops in Rock County. We hear it expressed by everybody, everywhere, farmer, merchants and druggists, they all seem to be posted this year, probably for the fact that the entire community is peculiarly interested, either directly or indirectly. And the universal prediction is that if the favorable condition of weather exists ten days longer the productive agriculture domain which environs our city and stretches its teeming acres to the utmost confines of the country will yield as it has not yielded for a decade of years. Hay, rye and winter wheat are not yet ready for sickle and the small grains are filling well. Corn is fully as good as the other grains, though of course it is not yet as far advanced as the other crops, but has reached such a growth that it is safe to predict a large and bountiful yield.

Tobacco is also coming fine and reports certify that this year's crop will be of excellent quality and quantity. A three-year-old colt, chattel of Dr. Coryell, last night charged through one end of the barn in which he was kept, in the Third ward, making complete ruin of it. A regiment of Sherman's bummers couldn't have accomplished a more artistic work of demolition than that little mare. H. S. Kidder, of Fulton, has left with us a sample of winter wheat raised upon his farm, which he thinks will yield at a rate of twenty-five bushels to the acre. He will cut this field next week and our opinion is that the grain will compare favorably with any crop of winter wheat ever raised in Rock County. As there is nothing else worthy of their breech-loaders sportsmen are calling for an advance on the woodcock reservations.
